CLIENT INFORMATION FORM

COUNSELING PHILOSOPHY

Each staff member has received graduate level training in psychology. Our work often involves assisting our clients in value based decisions; we want you to know that our foundational counseling philosophy is Christian in nature. We do not intend to impose our values upon our clients, but rather to help each person use their psychological and spiritual resources to reach their goals. Please direct further questions to your therapist.

PAYMENT POLICY

Payment is to be made in full at the time of service. Any other arrangements must be made in advance (including post-dated checks). Testing services and educational materials are in addition to the regular fees. Our billing is administered by Lincoln Family Medical Group, P.C. with whom we are affiliated.

Fees are based upon 45-50 minute sessions and are as follows:

	Diagnostic Interview	Individual Session	Family Session
Suzanne Jouvenat, LIMHP	$254	$210	$186
Lynn Nagorski, LIMHP	$254	$210	$186
Trevor Hyatt, LMHP	$254	$210	$186
Jennifer Coon, LMHP	$254	$210	$186

TELEPHONE CALLS

If phone contact with the therapist becomes necessary, we will try to respond as quickly as possible. Calls need to be for immediate help and not a substitute for counseling. Phone calls lasting 15 minutes or longer will be billed to the client as insurance does not cover these charges.

CANCELLATIONS - MISSED APPOINTMENTS

We must receive notice of a cancellation by noon on the business day immediately p	prior to your appointment.
Missed appointments and late notice cancellations are subject to a charge of $75.00.	Initial

INSURANCE

Many insurance policies provide coverage for mental health services. If your therapist has a contract with your insurance company, your financial responsibility is limited to deductibles, co-payments and co-insurance. If your therapist is not contracted, your account will typically be your full responsibility. Please notify our office promptly should your insurance change. Failure to notify us of a change will usually result in temporary loss of coverage.
